

EPQ Presentations 2025

- Should we continue to research and develop synthetic biology? An evaluation on its utility and societal challenges.
- What is more significant in the development of Alzheimer's Disease: Genetics or Lifestyle factors?
- To what extent do the societal fears represented in Bram Stoker's 'Dracula' in the late Victorian era reflect the societal fears of the 21st Century?
- To what extent is robotic surgery more beneficial than traditional surgery?
- To what extent does playing video games affect the emotions, mental health, and behaviour of developing adolescents?
- To what extent can Capital Punishment ever be justified?
- Should the UK Change its voting system, and if so, which democratic system should it change to?
- What impact did the Lance Armstrong doping scandal have on the Tour de France and has the Tour de France recovered?
- Can I make a 20-minute documentary film entitled, 'How resilient are the Bosnaks'?
- Is the National Health Service currently doing enough to support women with prenatal mental health conditions?
- How straightforward can it be to build/make a large-scale remote-control aeroplane that can fly, and be manoeuvrable?
- How far was the post-war economic crisis responsible for the growth in support for Mussolini and his fascist ideologies from World War One until 1922?
- To What Extent are Elite Athletes in Team Sports Born with a Genetic Psychological Advantage or Made Through Their Experiences and Psychological Interventions?
- Is it possible to create a dress that captures the glamour of the '1974: Romantic and Glamorous Hollywood Design Met Gala', without sexualising and objectifying women?
- Has Christianity improved women's lives?
- To what extent are psychological treatments of Alzheimer's Disease truly effective compared with pharmacological treatments?
- To what extent can ethical and moral values be effectively implemented into programming and AI systems?